19:15:23

 KERA- Lilly, what do you mean by why is race happening?

10-20-2020

19:16:05
 Lilly Why do people be treated different
10-20-2020
19:17:16

 KERA- People are treated differently for many reasons. It may be because you talk differently or look differently. But, that isn't fair...is it?
10-20-2020
19:18:03

 Lilly It is not fair
10-20-2020
19:18:54

 KERA- No, it isn't fair. We may look different or have different beliefs or ideas...but we should show respect to everyone. We have to be kind!
10-20-2020
19:21:56

 Lilly But why are white people get everything and black don't get much 10-20-2020
19:23:38

 KERA- What a good question, Lilly. I'm going to share this question with our speakers for tonight. We'll ask them to answer your question. Okay?

19:41:15

Lizzie It shouldn't be the responsibility of children of color to "stay safe" in a white supremacist culture.

10-20-2020

19:45:18

KERA- How do you address anti-blackness?

10-20-2020

19:47:43

Kit I liked it when John Lewis from the video said "Sometimes people don't hear the first time." How do you advise repeating a point, especially in the face of resistance -- or as KERA says, in the face of anti-blackness.
